Business arising –

1. Centennial Park Working bee – to be arranged to take advantage of moist soil.
2. Cinema. It was considered that outdoors works best. Next screenings on a Friday, a week before Christmas and end of school holidays.
3. Roadside numbering. PS reported that AHC has installed a numbered sign at the Forest Range Hall and the Lenswood Centennial Park.
4. Community Resilience Group. DK reported that there had been very little interest shown by group members to attend meetings and felt that there was no support for it to continue. The resilience group would continue as a meeting agenda item.
IF reported that the Forest Range Hall is to have an isolation switch installed so that a generator can be connected in a black out. She also had recent success in having a mobile phone repeater system installed at her home.

Correspondence-

A letter for Dan Cregan MP's office. A response he received from The Minister for Environment outlining activities and inspections that had taken place at the land surrounding the Lenswood General Store.

Business arising-

CS expressed disappointment in the lack of improvement and CG expressed frustration as a councillor that AHC has not enforced a court order "nothing is to stored outdoors." IF said it was good no vehicles were along the roadside.

Finance-

Bank Balance $684.27

Media Report-

PS reported that the Residents' Group Facebook page had almost 100 members. A post was place on the public page each Sunday and the website continues to store pages that can be referred to.

General or other business- none.

Next meeting- Thursday 24th November.
